Amount Requested: $3,000,000

Funds are needed to replace a structurally-deficient nematode quarantine laboratory in New York State. This is the only facility in the nation that condusts both laboratory and greenhouse research on potato cyst nematodes. If this facility loses its license, the entire U.S. potato industry is at risk. In the short term, this project would create 20 jobs in the building trades.