Amount Requested: $100,000

Funds would support bringing the award-winning Land Use Leadership Alliance (LULA) training program to the Upstate New York. LULA involves intensive leadership development training on sound land use decision-making and sustainable development.