Amount Requested: $588,000

Implement interagency, locally-led partnership between NYC and the watershed community to plan, design and construct conservation practices on farms to mitigate potential sources of pollution to the unfiltered water supply of New York City.