Amount Requested: $307,727

This project will improve office services through the purchase of much needed equipment, training and training material, special diagnostic testing, and contracting of research personnel. The purchase of much needed medical equipment will expedite the pathological examination of victims. investigators, office equipment, and training will enhance the quality and timeliness of death certifications. Special diagnostic testing will bring results outside the means of normal forensic lab examination.