Amount Requested: $4,000,000

CASP will develop an integrated energy system based on advanced flexible solar cells and high energy density supercapacitors that are optimally designed to improve power, lifetime and system efficiency.