Amount Requested: $3,000,000

Funds will support the continued development of a robust solar industry by coordinating and uniting diverse constituencies in order to overcame economic and technical obstacles that are currently inhibiting the industry's growth. This work help reduce US dependence on foreign oil and generate crucial new employment at this time of economic hardship.