Amount Requested: $250,000

This project supports the education and training for ironworkers and laborers to upgrade their skills and education to make them more employable in current and new technology and construction practices. It would create and retain instructors in addition to improving the trained by making them more employable in new fields, including employer reimbursement.