Amount Requested: $250,000

Parent Help for Military Families will offer telephone based conflict resolution services to military dads and moms living apart with disputes over parenting, co-parenting, custody, visitation and child support.