Amount Requested: $350,000

Ulster County is home to the Old Dutch Church, a national historic landmark and a vitally important part of Ulster County's economy. The current structure is in need of major repairs to mitigate safety issues and restore the church's status as a marquee landmark. Repairing and stabilizing the church will address critical safety issues, as well as help attract additional visitors to Ulster County, NY.