

Amount Requested: $6,000,000

Binghamton University will collaborate with government and academic partners to develop new dynamic, predictive workload and cooling system management for military and commercial cyber-physical electronic systems.