

Amount Requested: $5,000,000

TSEC and SUNY New Paltz, recognizing the need to provide quality, tested, and characterized power/energy technologies for military applications, will create a host lab whereby these technologies will be evaluated. The objective of this program is to test, characterize, and in the process develop knowledgeable personnel for DoD power related devices such as semiconductor based batteries, solar components, and related technologies.