

Amount Requested: $800,000

Building off the past successes of the Women's Work program, we anticipate increasing the job readiness of at least 200 women per year with the help of this appropriation. By engaging women in comprehensive job training and placement services, we will bolster the local economy, pulling women out of unemployment, poverty and bare-existence jobs, and working them into sustainable local careers that will enable these women to support their families.